1. The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, Title 2, United States Code, Section 431, et seq. (the "Election Act"), limits financial influence in the election of candidates for federal office, including the Office of United States Senator, and provides for the public disclosure of the financing of federal election campaigns:

a. The Election Act limits the amount and source of money that may be contributed to a federal candidate or that candidate's authorized campaign committee.

b. The Election Act prohibits any person from making any contribution in the name of another, including reimbursing a third person, before or after that third person's contribution, as inducement to make that contribution.

U.S. DISTRICT COURT

c. In 2012, the Election Act limited both primary and general election campaign contributions to $2,500 for a total of $5,000 from any individual to any one candidate.
